

34TH ICoMST - BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA, 1988

- Dates: 29 August - 2 September, 1988
- Place: Mayfair Crest International Hotel, King George Square,
BRISBANE
- Registration fee: Delegates A$ 400; Non-delegates A$ 150
- Attendance: Delegates 460; Non-delegates 81; Total 541
from 33 countries
- Papers Presented: 175
- Posters Displayed: 60
- Tours: Pre-congress:-
• Beenleigh Abattoir and the Gold Coast (3 days)
- Mid-congress:-
• Tour of the CSIRO Meat Research Laboratory
• City tour
• River trip to Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary
• Scenic tour to the Darling Downs
- Post-congress:-
• Red Centre/Great Barrier Reef (8 days)
• Heron Island, Great Barrier Reef (5 days)
• Overland to Sydney (6 days)
- Social Events:
- Sunday - Mixer - savouries and cocktails
Monday - Queensland Government Reception at Parliament House
Tuesday - Dinner and Brisbane River cruise aboard the "Kookaburra Queen"
Wednesday - Barbeque and bush dance at het Australian Woolshed
Thursday - Civic reception, Brisbane City Hall followed by the Congress Diner
Friday - Congress Farewell

Unique Events:

"Industry Day" held on Wednesday and designed to allow an exchange of vital information between the best commercial and technical people in the meat industry.

Publications:

- Congress Proceedings and Abstracts
- Meat '88 - Proceedings on "Industry Day" held on Wednesday
- Stunning of Livestock - Proceedings on a Workshop held during the Congress

Host Organisations:

- Livestock and Meat Authority of Queensland
- Meat Research Laboratory, CSIRO Division of Food Science and Technology

Organising Committee:Patron

- Mr W.E. Meynink, C.B.E.

Chairman

- Mr B.A. Campbell, M.B.E., Livestock and Meat Authority of Queensland

Secretary

- Mrs E.D. McKee, Livestock and Meat Authority of Queensland

Congress Chairman

- Mr J.J. Macfarlane, CSIRO Meat Research Laboratory

Program Committee Chairman

- Dr R.F. Thornton, CSIRO Meat Research Laboratory

Industry Day Chairman

- Mr I.F. Whan, Livestock and Meat Authority of Queensland

Program Committee

Mr C.S. Chandler, Dr A.F. Egan, Dr P.S. Hopkins, Mr B.Y. Johnson, Dr E.R. Johnson, Dr N.L. King, Mr J.J. Macfarlane, Dr R.F. Thornton (Chairman), Dr D.J. Walker

Editors

- C.S. Chandler
- R.F. Thornton

Ladies' Programs

- Mrs Elwyn (E.D.) McKee
- Mrs Beth (B.D.) Campbell
- Mrs Jan (J.L.) Macfarlane
- Mrs Vicki (V.A.) Whan

Delegates listen attentively during a lecture in the "Main Lecture Theatre".

Sunday evening: Mr Bill Spooncer (left) and Mr Barry Johnson, both of the CSIRO Meat Research Laboratory, meet up with Ms Temple Grandin, Consultant, Grandin Livestock, Urbana USA.

Dr V.H. (Vic) Powell, CSIRO Meat Research Laboratory, (left) Professor H.R. (Russell) Cross, Texas A & M University, USA, meet during a tea break between sessions.

Dr Tim Thornton presents Professor Fritz (Piki) Niinivaara with a momento of his attendance at the conference. The momento was a bark painting, an art probably unique to Australia. The painting is done with barks of various colours from native Australian trees.

35TH ICoMST - COPENHAGEN - DENMARK 1989

- Dates: August 20-25, 1989
- Place: SAS Scandinavia Hotel, Copenhagen
- Registration fee: Delegates $ 450; Non delegates $ 225
- Attendance: Delegates 409; Non delegates 74; 38 countries represented
- Papers presented: 196
- Tours: 4-day technical post congress tour to slaughterhouses and meat processing plants in Jutland

Social events:

- Sunday - Reception at Congress Hotel
Monday - Civic reception at Copenhagen Town Hall
Wednesday - Technical and cultural excursion to Roskilde and Ringsted
Thursday - Dinner at Congress Hotel
Separate non-delegates programme

Congress profile:

The congress programme concentrated on six main topics:

- On line methods for meat and carcass quality assessment (16 papers)
- Microbiology, hygiene, keepability and food safety (41 papers)
- Analytical methods (29 papers)
- Information technology in slaughtering and meat processing (4 papers)
- New production technologies and product development (49 papers)
- Muscle biology and meat biochemistry (57 papers)

Each topic was dealt with in:

- a plenary session with an invited speaker
- a poster session presenting the submitted papers
- mini seminars on specific subjects of current interest

Organizing committee:

K.B. Madsen (chairman), Anni Zeuthen, W. Klinth Jensen, Mogens Lange, Karen Engell, Børge Sørensen.

Host organisation: Danish Meat Research Institute.

Visit to the Viking ship museum, Roskilde.

Relaxing end of excursion day with Danish beer. Left: Wanda Sleeth (USA), Anni Zeuthen, Karen Engell (congress secretary) and Tim Thornton (Australia).

Visit to the STEFF-HOULBERG meat plant, Ringsted.

See you next year in Havana. K.B. Madsen and Gustavo Andujar.

36TH ICoMST - HAVANA - CUBA 1990

- Dates: August 27 - September 1
- Place: International Congress Center, Havana
- Registration fee: Delegates $ 250; Non delegates $ 100
- Attendance: Delegates 262; Non delegates 26; Total 288 from 45 different countries
- Papers presented: 176 on 9 main sessions with each a review paper being presented combined with poster sessions
- Mid-congress tour: Visit to the Food Research Institute and the Old City of Havana

Social events:

- Monday - Reception
- Tuesday - Opening Ceremony
Dinner, musical show in night club
- Wednesday - Reception by the City of Havana
- Friday - Congress Dinner
- Saturday - Closing Ceremony

Non-delegates programme:

Social events plus visit to the Napoleonic Museum on Tuesday and a day at the Beaches of the East of Havana.

Organizing Committee:

- Congress Chairman
- Bartolomé Yara, Director, Union of Meat Enterprises

Members:

- Alvaro Gracia, Director, Food Industry Research Institute
- Leila Aguilar, Director, Science and Technology, Ministry of Food Industry
- Juan J. Ferro, Director, Foreign Relations, Ministry of Food Industry
- Cecilio Fernández, Director, Standardization, Methodology and Quality Control, Ministry of Food Industry

- Humberto Cabezas, Director, Center for Design, Printing and Promotion, Ministry of Food Industry
- Raúl Quintans, Director, Meat Enterprise of Havana
- Julio Hernández, Deputy Director, Union of Meat Enterprises
- Hermes Bravo, Deputy Director, Union of Meat Enterprises
- Manuel Oropesa, Officer, Ministry of Food Industry

Congress Secretary

- Gustavo Andújar, Senior Research Officer, Food Industry Research Institute

International Conference Center.

37TH ICoMST - KULMBACH, GERMANY 1991

- Dates: 1 September - 6 September 1991
- Place: Federal Centre for Meat Research (BAFF), Kulmbach, Germany
- Registration fee: Delegates $ 450; Non delegates $ 180
- Attendance: Delegates 450; Non delegates 71; Total 521 from 47 countries
- Papers presented: 270 full papers printed (1313 pages); 9 plenary sessions with invited speakers
- Technical tours: Federal Centre for Meat Research, school for meat technologists, slaughterhouse, meat processing plant, spice mill, visit to local butchers. All in Kulmbach.
- Scenic tours: Franconian Forest, village of Thurnau (ceramic arts), ancient town of Kronach (Lucas Cranach birth-place), Rosenthal (china ware designer), Rokoko-Basilica Fourteen Saints, Bamberg (bishops residence), Monastery Abbey Waldsassen, Water Chateau Mitwitz, Veste Coburg (hide-out for Martin Luther during reformation, birth-place of Prince Albert, husband of Queen Victoria).

Social events:

- Sunday - Welcoming Party at the Bundesanstalt
Monday - Evening at the Rokoko Opera House in Bayreuth
Tuesday - Evening at the Plassenburg in Kulmbach
Thursday - Congress Dinner at the BAFF
Friday - Farewell Luncheon at the Bundesanstalt

Unique events:

Half-day workshop entitled "Meats in Developing Countries", 16 developing countries were represented at the Congress. The "Adalbert-Raps-Foundation" assisted 30 participants from countries with foreign exchange problems. At the workshop it became clear that in relation to meat availability and attitudes are shifting apart in the world, many countries have severe shortages and thus high esteem for meat, in others surplus is taken for granted and meat is less respected.

Organizing committee:

Lothar Leistner (Chairman), Wolfgang Arneth, Wolfgang Branscheid, Klaus Fischer, Johanna Fink-Gremmels, Karl-Otto Honikel, Helmut Lindner, Karl Potthast, Wolfgang Rödel, Freddy Schwägele, Fritz Wirth, Wolfgang Woltersdorf. All were members of the BAFF.

Non-delegates Program:

Brigitte Herold (Chairwoman)

Congress Sekretariat: Christina Lick, Susanne Löhnert, Renate Schneider, Ingrid Iglar.
Ladies Lounge: Hiltraut Augustini, Helga Freudenreich, Heidemarie Frötschel, Lore Kühne, KaiMin Leistner, Christel Potthast, Barbara Rogowski, Edith Scheper, Gertrud Schwägele, Elvira Stiebing. All were members or wives of members of the BAFF.

Inofficial opening by Prof. L. Leistner.

Meeting friends at the welcoming party in the BAFF. On the foreground Dr. D. and Mrs M. Lister and Dr. T. Taylor from the U.K.

Welcome at the Plassenburg, the castle of Kulmbach.

Posters in the foyer of the Stadthalle.

Delegates from developing countries attending the congress and the special workshop "Meats in developing countries".

38TH ICoMST - CLERMONT FERRAND - FRANCE 1992

- Dates: August 23 - August 28, 1992
- Place: Maison des Congrès - Clermont Ferrand
- Registration fee: Delegates 3500 FF; Non-delegates 2000 FF
- Attendance: Delegates 500; Non-delegates 60 from 45 countries
- Papers presented: 19 review papers and 320 contributions in 11 plenary sessions
- Technical tour: Tour of INRA research Centre in Theix, ADIV development center in Clermont Ferrand and SOCOPA meat plant in Villefranche d'Allier

Social events:

- Sunday - welcome party in Altea Hotel
- Monday - reception at Clermont Ferrand Town Hall and country buffet
- Tuesday - Congress dinner at Chateau de Ravel
- Wednesday - Technical or scenic tour
- Thursday - Concert at St. Austreimoine Church in Issoire and buffet
- Friday - farewell luncheon

Organizing Committee:

C. Valin (Chairman) INRA; R. Bocard, INRA; C. Touraille, INRA; Marie Christine Bayle, INRA; Elaine Bachelard, INRA; M. Saudan, ADIV; J.L. Bignon, INTERBEV; Françoise Graive, Clermont Congrès.

Congress chairman C. Valin (INRA) explaining scientific truths.

Interest for the poster sessions in the "Maison des congrès et de la culture".

Non-Delegates enjoying their french wine during the lunch.